"I have known Jeff Popham and Rory Whipple for a long time. They are truly dedicated and knowledgeable. I am confident that Ocean State Lacrosse Camp will be a valuable experience for all young players."
 Dom Starvia, Head Coach, University of Virginia, NCAA Division I Champions 1999, 2003, 2006

Camp Directors Jeff Popham, Rory Whipple, and experienced staff of college and high school coaches invite you to our sixth annual camp that will be highly instructional for experienced as well as beginning players. As in past years, accomplished home grown college players will round out our coaching staff which will dedicated to making your camp experience a valuable one.

Our goal is to develop each camper into a faster, stronger, more confident & complete lacrosse player!

Our emphasis will be on:

- motivating you to master the fundamentals with your strong hand as well as your weak hand.
- teaching you the advanced team play skills at each position- attack, midfield, defense, goalie- to give you the confidence to excel!
- practicing special situations to prepare you for success in those critical points in a game.
- improving your strength, speed, and agility.
- bringing out the best in you in the skills competitions and daily games.
- instilling confidence, encouraging teamwork and sportsmanship, and having fun!

Campers will also receive: a lacrosse jersey, water bottle, buffet lunch daily, special gift, individual camp portrait, and a ticket to the 2011 MLL All-Star Game on Saturday July 9th at Harvard Stadium at 7:00! Additional tickets for family members and friends can be purchased for $15.

Campers must bring: Stick, mouthguard, lacrosse helmet, gloves, arm pads, shoulder pads, cleats, & sandals (for lunch hour). Please identify all belongings!

The 2010 OSLC Coaching Staff- experienced, knowledgeable, dedicated!

I had a great time. I thought that the camp was well organized and that all of the coaches really knew what they were doing.

"Your camp got top ranks from our family. It was fun for Chris, he learned a lot and it was all around a great experience, thank you for helping him develop as a player and as a person."
